Description:

He is a lovibal outgoing dog. Loves to run around outside and sniff around. He is good with children and other dogs. His best friend is the neighborhood cat that comes around to play with him. Unfortunately we live in an apartment and he would do so much better with a yard to run around in. He is young and knows the basic commands but we don't have the time to train him properly. I'm sad to let him go but want a family to take good care of him. He has all of his shots but isn't neutered yet.
