Description: We adopted Ben just three weeks ago. He was born 01/28/2019 so is very much still a puppy. Ben is a very well mannered boy who loves to cuddle. Ben LOVES kids and other dogs... but does need work on not jumping. Ben is in process of house training. He seems to understand when he is taken outside to use the bathroom outside. However, when Ben needs to go, he needs to go. He is up to date on all shots and has a very clean bill of health from the vet. We purchased this dog for $2700 from a local pet store for our teenage girls. They promised they would help often and that lasted three days. My husband and I live a very busy lifestyle and while I have rearranged my schedule for two weeks to care for Ben, I cannot continue that routine. Ben needs lots of walks and love. He is very intelligent but has a lot of energy. He is not hyper. He just likes to be able to roam free and play fetch (yes, he already does this). I am trying to recover some of the cost for purchasing him and it is VERY important to me he go to a great home.
